

FOSTERING INNOVATION AND REINFORCING THE EUROPEAN UNIVERSITY ALLIANCE FOR GLOBAL HEALTH'S (EUGLOH) COOPERATION WITH THE BUSINESS SECTOR AND OTHER RELEVANT STAKEHOLDERS

How does the European University Alliance for Global Health - Research and Innovation Action (EUGLOHRIA) reinforce cooperation between academia, business and other stakeholders?

By creating Academia-Business-Society Networks:

- 21 Exchanges of academia-business networks' practices
- 2 Workshops
- 13 Engaged external stakeholders
- 47 External stakeholders mapped in the EUGLOHRIA Survey on Academia-Business Cooperation
- Deliverable: Action plan for EUGLOH Academia Business Society Networks

Action Plan:

- Action 1: Creation of EUGLOH Innovation Hub
- Action 2: Open existing practices within EUGLOH
- Action 3: Connect EUGLOH local Technology Transfer Offices
- Action 4: EUGLOH Academia-Business networks team

By sharing Best Practices and promoting Innovation in Global Health:

- 26 Exchanges of best practices of knowledge and technology transfer
- 2 Workshops with external stakeholders
- 7 Engaged external stakeholders
- Deliverable: Summary Report on Best Practices and Promotion of Innovation in the EUGLOH Alliance
- European Symposium Innovation in Global Health: +150 participants & +7 hours of discussions

By developing an Impact Assessment and Action Plan for a Global Health Observatory, which will facilitate dialogue and partnerships between the different local, regional and international stakeholders

